DISCIPLES

2018 Napa Valley Red Wine

We have always written tasting notes from a winemaker's perspective, and I have a bit of bias. So, for the 2018 Disciples, we decided to try something different and asked Daniel to write the tasting notes. Daniel and I met over dinner about a year ago and have subsequently become friends; he was kind enough to share his thoughts with us.

Tasting Notes

Strawberry preserves leap from the glass initially, followed by a bouquet of floral aromatics: lavender, violets and roses. Rich earthy notes of freshly plowed soil, fresh rain on warm granite and petrichor. Spicy, but not a peppery spice, more of a star anise spiciness, tart raspberries and sweet plouts, with a very long, dusty finish of strawberry cream, vanilla and caramelized sugar that lingers...smooth and luscious!
